

information about the Assignment requested by the Employment Business including copies of tachograph charts for Temporary Workers. Furthermore the Client agrees not to do anything to cause the Employment Business to be in breach of its obligations under the EU Drivers Hours Rules and the Road Transport (Working Time) Regulations (2005)

8.3.2 For Temporary Workers who are mobile workers working in operations not subject to EU Drivers Hours Rules and Temporary workers who are not mobile workers, the Client will assist the Employment Business in complying with the Employment Business' duties under the Working Time Regulations 1998 (as amended) by supplying any relevant information about the Assignment requested by the Employment Business and the Client will not do anything to cause the Employment Business to be in breach of its obligations under these Regulations. Where the Client requires or may require the services of a Temporary Worker for more than 48 hours in any week, the Client must notify the Employment Business of this requirement before the commencement of that week.

8.3.3 The client undertakes that transport time schedules shall conform to the requirements of EU Drivers Hours Rules and the Road Transport (Working Time) Regulations 2005.

8.4 The Client undertakes that it knows of no reason why it would be detrimental to the interests of the Temporary Worker for the Temporary Worker to fill the Assignment.

8.5 The Client undertakes not to request the supply of a Temporary Worker to perform the duties normally performed by a worker who is taking part in official industrial action or duties normally performed someone who has been transferred by the Client to perform the duties of the person on strike or taking official industrial action.

8.6 The Client shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Employment Business against any costs, claims or liabilities incurred by the Employment Business arising out of any Assignment or arising out of any non-compliance with clauses 8.2, 8.3 and 8.5 and/or as a result of any breach of these Terms by the Client.

9. SPECIAL SITUATIONS

9.1 Temporary Drivers are supplied by the employment business on the sole understanding that the client holds an operator's licence under the Goods Vehicle (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995 when required.

9.2 As far as possible, the Employment Business will check reference of drivers and will examine driving licences and permits, notwithstanding this, the client agrees to take direct responsibility for all statutory duties where applicable in respect of driving licences and permits, drivers' hours and records, the issue and collection of tachograph cards, maintenance and safety of vehicles, Health and Safety Regulations, and Road Traffic and liability insurances, including but not limited to fully comprehensive insurance for the vehicle to be driven and its contents. The client shall on request permit the Employment Business to inspect its operator's licence and policies of insurance for the vehicles to be driven by the Temporary Worker.

9.3 To assist clients in complying with the relevant provisions of the Goods Vehicle (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995, the Employment Business agrees to provide the Client upon request with such information as is available to the Employment Business about any driving assignments carried out by the driver in the seven days immediately preceding the commencement of an assignment with the client, provided the driver shall have worked for a client of the Employment Business during those seven days.

9.4 Where the Temporary Worker is required by law, or any professional body to have any qualifications or authorisations to work on the Assignment or the Assignment involves caring for or attending one or more persons under the age of eighteen or any person who by reason of age, infirmity or who is otherwise in need of care or attention, the Employment Business will take all reasonably practicable steps to obtain and offer to provide to the Client:

- Copies of any relevant qualifications or authorisations of the Temporary Worker, and
- Two references from persons not related to the Temporary Worker who have agreed that the references they provide may be disclosed to the Client and has taken all reasonably practicable steps to confirm that the Temporary Worker is suitable for the Assignment. If the Employment Business is unable to do any of the above it shall inform the Client of the steps it has taken to obtain this information in any event.

10. TERMINATION

10.1 The Client undertakes to supervise the Temporary Worker sufficiently to ensure the Client's satisfaction with the Temporary Worker's standards of workmanship. If the Client reasonably considers that the services of the Temporary Worker are unsatisfactory, the Client may terminate the Assignment either by instructing the Temporary Worker to leave the Assignment immediately, or by directing the Employment Business to remove the Temporary Worker. The Employment Business may, in such circumstances, reduce or cancel the charges for the time worked by that Temporary Worker, provided that the Assignment terminates: -

- a) Within four hours of the Temporary Worker commencing the Assignment where the booking is for more than seven hours; or
- b) Within two hours for bookings of seven hours or less;

And also provided that notification of the unsuitability of the Temporary Worker is confirmed in writing to the Employment Business within 48 hours of the termination of the Assignment.

10.2 Any of the Client, the Employment Business or the Temporary Worker may terminate an Assignment at any time without prior notice and without liability.

10.3 The Client shall notify the Employment Business immediately and without delay and in any event within [24] hours if the Temporary Worker fails to attend work or notifies the Client that the Temporary Worker is unable to attend work for any reason.

10.4 The Employment Business shall notify the Client immediately if it receives or otherwise obtains information which gives it reasonable grounds to believe that a Temporary Worker supplied to the Client is unsuitable for the Assignment and shall be entitled to terminate the Assignment forthwith by notice in writing without prior notice and without liability.

SUPPLYING TEMPORARY DRIVERS - CLIENT TERMS OF BUSINESS

SUPPLYING TEMPORARY DRIVERS - CLIENT TERMS OF BUSINESS

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1 In these Terms of Business the following definitions apply:

| "Assignment" | means the period during which the Temporary Worker is supplied by the Employment Business to render services to the Client; |
| "Client" | means the person, firm or corporate body together with any subsidiary or associated company as defined by the Companies act 1985 to whom the Temporary Worker is supplied or introduced; |
| "The Employment Business" | means Impact Recruitment Limited of Burlington House East Wing, 369 Wellingborough Road, Northampton, NN1 4EU; |
| "Engages/Engaged/Engagement" | means the engagement, employment or use of the Temporary Worker directly by the client or any third party or through any other employment business on a permanent or temporary basis, whether under a contract of service or for services; an agency, licence franchise or partnership arrangement; or any other engagement; directly or through a limited company of which the Temporary Worker is an officer or employee; |
| "Temporary Worker" | means the individual who is introduced by the Employment Business to render services to the Client; |
| "Transfer Fee" | means the fee payable in accordance with clause 7.1 below and Regulation 10 of the Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003; |
| "Introduction Fee" | means the fee payable in accordance with clause 7.2 below and Regulation 10 of the Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003; |
| "Introduction" | means (i) the Client's interview of a Temporary Worker in person or by telephone, following the Client's instruction to the Employment Business to supply a Temporary Worker or (ii) the passing to the Client of a curriculum vitae or information which identifies the Temporary Worker; and which leads to an Engagement of that Temporary Worker; |
| "Remuneration" | includes base salary or fees, guaranteed and/or anticipated bonus and commission earnings, allowances, inducement payments, the benefit of a company car and all other payments and taxable (and, where applicable, non-taxable) emoluments payable to or receivable by the Temporary Worker for services rendered to or on behalf of the Client or any third party. Where a company car is provided, a notional amount £4000 will be added to the salary in order to calculate the Employment Business' fee; |
| "Working Time" | means working time as defined under the Road Transport (Working Time) Regulations 2005, namely, time consisting of those periods during which the Temporary Worker is at their workstation at the disposal of the Client and exercising his/her functions or activities, and that such periods of time are devoted to road transport activities, such as driving, loading and unloading, assisting passengers boarding the vehicle, cleaning and maintenance of the vehicle, and all other work intended to enhance the safety of the vehicle, cargo and passengers or to fulfil the legal or regulatory obligations directly linked to the specific transport operations; |
| "Periods of Availability" | means periods of waiting time as defined under the Road Transport(Working Time) Regulations 2005, namely, periods of waiting time whose duration is known | about in advance by the Temporary Worker. Such periods of time consist of time spent when the Temporary Worker is not required to remain at his/her workstation, but must be available to answer calls to start or resume driving or other work on request, and the period and the foreseeable duration is known in advance by the mobile worker, either before departure or just before the start of the period of availability in question;

|---------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| "Mobile Worker" | is any worker forming part of the travelling staff who is in the service of an undertaking which operates road transport services for passengers or the movement of goods; |
| "EU Drivers Hours Rules" | Means Community Drivers' Hours Regulation (EC) 561/2006; |

1.2 Unless the context otherwise requires, references to the singular include the plural

1.3 The headlines contained in these Terms are for convenience only and do not affect their interpretation

2. THE CONTRACT

2.1 These Terms constitute the contract between the Employment Business and the Client for the supply of the Temporary Worker's services by the Employment Business to the Client and are deemed to be accepted by the Client by virtue of its request for, interview with or Engagement of the Temporary Worker or the passing of any information about the Temporary Worker to any third party following an Introduction.

2.2 These Terms contain the entire agreement between the parties and unless otherwise agreed in writing by a director of the Employment Business, these Terms prevail over any terms of business or purchase conditions put forward by the Client.

2.3 No variation or alteration to these Terms shall be valid unless the details of such variation are agreed between the Employment Business and the Client and are set out in writing and a copy of the varied terms is given to the Client stating the date on or after which such varied terms shall apply.

3. CHARGES

3.1 The Client agrees to pay such hourly charges of the Employment Business as shall be notified to and agreed with the Client. The hourly charges are calculated according to the number of hours worked by the Temporary Worker (to the nearest quarter hour) and comprise mainly the Temporary Worker's hourly rate but also include the Employment Business' commission calculated as a percentage of the Temporary Worker's hourly rate, employer's National Insurance contributions and any travel, hotel or other expenses as may have been agreed with the Client or, if there is no such agreement, such expenses as are reasonable. VAT, if applicable, is payable on the entirety of these charges.

3.2 The charges are invoiced to the Client on a weekly basis and are payable within 30 days. The Employment Business reserves the right to charge interest on any overdue amounts at the rate of 8% per annum above the base rate from time to time of the Bank of England from the due date until the date of payment.

3.3 There are no rebates payable in respect of the charges of the Employment Business.

3.4 The Client agrees to pay the Employment Business' charges in respect of the number of hours worked by the Temporary worker. For the avoidance of doubt, for mobile workers involved in operations subject to EU Drivers Hours Rules, the number of hours worked by the Temporary Worker during the week comprises of the total number of hours Working Time and the total number of hours spent as Periods of Availability as defined under the Road Transport (Working Time) Regulations 2005. Clients will not be charged for rest breaks during a shift taken by a Temporary Worker in line with EU Drivers Hours Rules or under the Road Transport (Working Time) Regulations 2005.

3.5 The Employment Business assumes responsibility for keeping and maintaining Records of the Temporary Worker's Working Time and night work under the Road Transport (Working Time) Regulations 2005

4. INFORMATION TO BE PROVIDED

4.1 When making an Introduction of a Temporary Worker to the Client the Employment Business shall inform the Client of the identity of the Temporary Worker; that the Temporary Worker has the necessary or required experience, training, qualifications and any authorisation required by law or a professional body to work in the Assignment; whether the Temporary Worker will be employed by the Employment Business under a contract of service or apprenticeship or a contract for services; and that the Temporary Worker is willing to work in the Assignment.

4.2 Where such information is not given in paper form or by electronic means it shall be confirmed by such means by the end of the third business day (excluding Saturday, Sunday and any public or Bank holiday) following, save where the Temporary Worker is being introduced for an Assignment in the same position as one in which the Temporary Worker had previously been supplied within the previous five business days and such information has already been given to the Client, unless the Client requests that the information be resubmitted.

5. TIME SHEETS

5.1 At the end of each week of an Assignment (or at the end of the Assignment where it is for a period of one week or less) the Client shall sign the Employment Business' time sheet verifying the number of hours worked by the Temporary Worker during that week.

5.2 Signature of the time sheet by the Client is confirmation of the number of hours worked. If the Client is unable to sign a time sheet produced for authentication by the Temporary Worker because the Client disputes the hours claimed, the Client shall inform the Employment Business as soon as is reasonably practicable and shall co-operate fully and in a timely fashion with the Employment Business to enable the Employment Business to establish what hours, if any, were worked by the Temporary Worker. Failure to sign the time sheet does not absolve the Client's obligation to pay the charges in respect of the hours worked.

5.3 The Client shall not be entitled to decline to sign a timesheet on the basis that he is dissatisfied with the work performed by the Temporary Worker. In cases of unsuitable work the Client should apply the provisions of clause 10.1 below.

6. PAYMENT OF THE TEMPORARY WORKER

6.1 The Employment Business assumes responsibility for paying the Temporary Worker and where appropriate, for the deduction and payment of National Insurance Contributions and PAYE Income Tax applicable to the Temporary Worker pursuant to sections 44-47 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003.

7. TRANSFER AND INTRODUCTION FEES

7.1 Where there has been a supply

7.1.1 In the event of the Engagement by the Client of a Temporary Worker supplied by the Employment Business either (1) directly or (2) pursuant to being supplied by another employment business, during the Assignment or within whichever is the longer of either

- 14 weeks from the start of the first Assignment (the first Assignment being each new assignment where there has been a break of more than 42 days (6 weeks) since the end of the previous Assignment); or
 - 8 weeks from the day after the last day the Temporary Worker worked on the Assignment
- the Client shall be liable, to either an extended period of hire or a Transfer Fee the length or amount of which is to be agreed between the Employment Business and the Client.

7.1.2 The Client must give the Employment Business 5 days' written notice in advance of the Engagement of whether it has elected to take the period of extended hire or to pay the Transfer Fee.

7.1.3 If the client does not give such notice before the Temporary Worker is Engaged the parties agree that the Transfer Fee shall be due.

7.1.4 If the parties do not agree a period of extended hire or a Transfer Fee in accordance with 7.1.1 then the following shall be deemed to have been agreed: The amount of the Transfer fee shall be such proportion of the amount calculated as follows: 20% of the remuneration applicable during the first twelve months of the Engagement or, if the actual amount of the Remuneration is not known, the hourly referred to in Clause 3.1 multiplied by 300.

7.2 Where there has been an introduction but no supply

7.2.1 In the event that there is an Introduction of a Temporary Worker to the Client which does not result in the supply of that Temporary Worker by the Employment Business to the Client, but which leads to an Engagement by the Client of the Temporary Worker by the Client either (1) directly or (2) pursuant to being supplied by another employment business within 6 months of the date of the Introduction the Client shall be liable, to either an extended period of hire or an Introduction Fee the length or amount of which is to be agreed between the Employment Business and the Client.

7.2.2 The Client must give the Employment Business 5 days' written notice in advance of the Engagement of whether it has elected to take the period of extended hire or to pay the Transfer Fee.

7.2.3 If the client does not give such notice before the Temporary Worker is Engaged the parties agree that the Transfer Fee shall be due

7.2.4 If the parties do not agree a period of extended hire or a Transfer Fee in accordance with 7.1.1 then the following shall be deemed to have been agreed: The amount of the Transfer fee shall be such proportion of the amount calculated as follows: 20% of the remuneration applicable during the first twelve months of the Engagement or, if the actual amount of the Remuneration is not known, the hourly referred to in Clause 3.1 multiplied by 300.

Inability to supply during the period of hire

7.2.5 If the Client elects for an extended period of hire, as set out above, but before the end of such period Engages the Temporary Worker supplied by the Employment Business either directly or pursuant to being supplied by another employment business or the Temporary Worker chooses not to be supplied for an extended period of hire, the Introduction Fee calculated in accordance with 7.2.2 may be charged, reduced by such percentage to reflect the period of extended hire already undertaken by the Temporary Worker and paid for by the Client.

7.2.6 Where period(s) of absence due to illness or injury prevent the Temporary Worker from being employed or supplied for 4 or more days, which shall be qualifying days for the purposes of Statutory Sick Pay (SSP), during the period of hire as set out above, the period of hire shall be extended by a period equivalent to the total period of absence. Where the Employment Business pays the Temporary Worker SSP during the period of hire an equivalent amount shall be charged to and be payable by the Client in addition to the charges agreed pursuant to clause 3.1.

7.3 Where there has been Introduction to and Engagement by a Third Party

7.3.1 In the event that the Temporary Worker supplied to a Client is introduced by the Client to a third party which results in the Engagement of the Temporary Worker by the third party during the Assignment or within whichever is the longer of either the two options set out in 7.1.1.

7.3.2 If the parties do not agree a period of extended hire or a Transfer Fee in accordance with 7.1.1 then the following shall be deemed to have been agreed: The amount of the Transfer fee shall be such proportion of the amount calculated as follows: 20% of the remuneration applicable during the first twelve months of the Engagement or, if the actual amount of the Remuneration is not known, the hourly referred to in Clause 3.1 multiplied by 300.

7.4 Where there has been an Introduction but no Supply resulting in an Engagement by a Third Party

In the event that there is an Introduction of a Temporary Worker to the Client which does not result in the supply of that Temporary Worker by the Employment Business to the Client, but the Temporary Worker is introduced by the Client to a third party which results in the Engagement of the Temporary Worker by the third party within 6 months from the date of Introduction the Client shall be liable, to an Introduction Fee calculated as follows: 20% of the Remuneration applicable during the first 12 months of the Engagement or, if the actual amount of the Remuneration is not known, the hourly charges agreed pursuant to clause 3.1 multiplied by 300.

7.5 No refund of the Transfer or Introduction Fee will be paid in the event that the Introduction or Engagement subsequently terminates. VAT is payable in addition to any fee due.

8. LIABILITY

8.1 Whilst every effort is made by the Employment Business to give satisfaction to the Client by ensuring reasonable standards of skills, integrity and reliability from Temporary Workers and further to provide them in accordance with the Client's booking details, the Employment Business is not liable for any loss, expense, damage or delay arising from any failure to provide any Temporary Worker for all or part of the period of booking or from the negligence, dishonesty, misconduct or lack of skill of the Temporary Worker. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employment Business does not exclude liability for death or personal injury arising from its own negligence.

8.2 Temporary Workers supplied by the Employment Business are engaged under contracts for services. They are not the employees of the Employment Business but are deemed to be under the supervision, direction and control of the Client from the time they report to take up duties and for the duration of the Assignment. The Client agrees to be responsible for all acts, errors or omissions of the Temporary Worker, whether wilful, negligent or otherwise as though the Temporary Worker was on the payroll of the Client. The Client will also comply in all respects with all statutes including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Working Time Regulations, Health and Safety At Work Act etc, by-laws, codes of practice and legal requirements to which the Client is ordinarily subject in respect of the Client's own staff (excluding the matters specifically mentioned in Clause 6 above), including in particular the provision of adequate Employer's and Public Liability Insurance cover for the Temporary Worker during all Assignments.

8.3.1 The Client shall advise the Employment Business of any special health and safety matters about which the Employment Business is required to inform the Temporary Worker and about any requirements imposed by law by a professional body, which must be satisfied if the Temporary Worker is to fill the Assignment for Temporary Workers who are mobile workers working in operations subject to EU Drivers Hours Rules, the Client will assist the Employment Business in complying with the Employment Business's duties under EU Drivers Hours Rules and the Road Transport (Working Time) Regulations 2005 by supplying relevant
